SUMMARY – Kovels on Antiques and Collectibles January 2012 issue is now available in print and online. Featured this month are picture and price auction reports on Kitchen Graniteware, Toy Riding Tractor and Slot Machines.

CLEVELAND – January 1, 2012 – Kovels on Antiques and Collectibles January 2012 issue is now available in print and online.

A bidder hit it big at a Las Vegas auction when $2,760 won a 25-cent Jennings Sun Chief "Blue Star" slot machine. See pictures and prices of antique and vintage slot machines that sold for up to $126,500 in Kovels' January 2012 newsletter. Prices clustered around $200 for more than a dozen toy pedal tractors that sold at an Iowa advertising auction. Kovels' January newsletter reports on some John Deere and International Harvester models that look a lot like the real thing. Enameled graniteware kitchen items have a distinctive appearance and were popular from the late 1800s until about 1940. Read about pieces that sold recently in Pennsylvania in the January issue of Kovels on Antiques and Collectibles.

Terry Kovel's report on the Dunham Tavern Antique Show in Cleveland, and regular monthly features—the Dictionary of Marks, featuring Weller Pottery, the popular illustrated Collector's Gallery with answers to readers' questions, and the Buyer's Price Guide of recent prices—are also included.

With its mixture of expert advice and reports on what's hot in the market, the newsletter has something to offer for both beginning and experienced collectors.
